

Future-Proofing Your Workforce and Supercharging Resource Efficiency

Breakout Room Questions

1. What do you think are the top skills that strong accounting professionals need to have?
2. What aspects of our current workplace culture help us attract and retain top talent—and where do we have opportunities to improve?
3. What are some of the biggest challenges you face with resource management, such as attracting talent, developing your team, or staffing and allocation? What are two immediate improvements you can make within the first half of the year to address them?
4. Have you conducted a culture audit at your company? If so, do you have any advice on how to effectively conduct one?